

GETSEA

Mini-Course Proposal Form

DEADLINE FOR WINTER SESSION: October 30, 2020

DESCRIPTION: The consortium for Graduate Education and Training in Southeast Asian Studies (GETSEA) has funding to pilot a series of non-credit, specialized mini-courses to be held online through synchronous video-conferencing. The primary focus should be Southeast Asia and can be on any topic or in any discipline. Multidisciplinary and co-taught collaborative courses are encouraged. The courses should be designed for 8-12 contact hours and will be open to PhD and MA graduate students at the participating GETSEA institutions. (Any student who wishes to arrange credit for their participation must do so through an independent study approved and supervised at their home institution.) Honorarium of $800-$2400 will be provided based on number of contact hours & whether co-taught.

Faculty Name (s): _____ Email address: _____

Institution (s): _____ Home Department(s): _____

Proposed Mini-Course Title: _____

Course Description:

Proposed Timeframe: circle any that apply, list potential dates

Winter Session * Spring Semester/Quarter * Summer Possible dates: _____

Contact Hours and Format: _____ hours Format: _____

Examples: 9 hours, long weekend (3 x 3hr sessions); 12 hours (1 hour weekly x 12 weeks), 10 hours (2-5hr weekend sessions)

Time of Day/Time Zone: _____

Additional notes/information: Please attach a brief outline of the course, a tentative reading list, and the type of assignments that are likely to be included in the course.