Instructions for Add a Degree or Certificate Program Application (Formerly: Dual Degree Application)

Important Note:
• Rackham doctoral students are only permitted to be active in one doctoral program at a time. Doctoral students who wish to pursue a single Ph.D. across two departments or programs should refer to http://www.rackham.umich.edu/policies/academic_policies/section5/#55 for information on the Student Initiated Degree Program.

Eligible Applicants
Current Rackham graduate students who seek to add a Rackham degree or certificate program should submit this application. No application fee is required.

Example of eligible applicant:
A Rackham student enrolled in a Master of Arts in Higher Education in the Fall of 2009 seeks to add a Masters of Public Policy in the Winter of 2010.

Application Deadlines
Applicants should go to http://www.rackham.umich.edu/dig to obtain the addresses and deadline dates of Rackham programs.

Application Submission
Submit to the current graduate program:
• The original, completed and signed Add a Degree or Certificate Application pages 1-4.

Submit to the proposed graduate program:
• The Cover Sheet for the Proposed Graduate Program (Degree or Certificate).
• Supporting documents required by the proposed graduate program of application.

Submit to the Rackham Graduate School:
• The completed Admissions Conduct Code, page 5

Application Consideration and Notification
• The current and proposed graduate programs review the Application, mark program decisions, and then send the Application to Rackham.
• If the applicant is currently active in two Rackham programs, each current program must review and mark a program decision.
• Each program must recommend the applicant for admission in order for Rackham to approve the addition.
• International applicants recommended for admission to the new program and continuing on a student visa will be required to submit updated financial certification only if completion of the added program requires additional time as a University of Michigan student.
• Rackham Graduate Admissions will finalize the admission and send an admission notification to those recommended applicants that meet all Rackham admission require
Send to the Proposed Graduate Program (Degree or Certificate)

Add a Degree or Certificate Program Cover Sheet
for the Proposed Graduate Program

Complete this Cover Sheet and send, with program-required supplemental materials, such as a statement of purpose, vita, letters of recommendation, etc., to the Proposed Graduate Program (Degree or Certificate).

Please access: http://www.rackham.umich.edu/GRIN.html for program contact information.

The original Dual Degree/Program Application, pages 1 to 3, should be sent to the current Rackham program (degree or certificate), for a decision, signature and date. The current Rackham program (degree or certificate) then sends the original Dual Degree/Program Application, pages 1 to 3, to the proposed Rackham program (degree or certificate) for a decision.

The proposed Rackham program (degree or certificate) will indicate their decision on page 4. The program will send the original Dual Degree/Program Application (pages 1-4) to Rackham Admissions.
