

SENSES & LONGINGS

WINTER 2017
1014 TISCH
(UNLESS NOTED)

THURSDAY SERIES

January 19, 4:00 pm
Ada Ferrer, New York University
Lecture: Aponte's Vision: Race, Revolution, and World History in an Atlantic Port City, Havana 1812

February 2, 4:00 pm
Leslie Pincus, University of Michigan
Lecture: On the Shores of Japan's Postwar Left: An Intimate History

February 16, 4:00 pm
Rudolph T. Ware III, University of Michigan
Lecture: Visionaries: Second Sight and Social Change in West Africa Since 1800

March 23, 4:00 pm
Osagie K. Obasogie, University of California, Berkeley
Lecture: What Can Blind People Tell Us About Race?

April 13, 4:00 pm
Robin Blackburn, University of Essex
Nancy Fraser, The New School for Social Research
Lecture: On Futures, Past and Present
Hatcher Library Gallery (Room 100)

M | LSA EISENBERG INSTITUTE
FOR HISTORICAL STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

FRIDAY SERIES

January 20, 10:00 am-4:00 pm
Symposium: New Directions in the Study of Race in Latin America and the Caribbean

February 3, 12:00 pm
Symposium: From Archives to Nail Guns: Practical Applications of Graduate History Training
Jonathan Farr, Nora Krinitsky, Emily Price, Kate Silbert, Michelle McClellan (chair)

March 24, 12:00 pm
Graduate Student Workshop
Xiaoyue Li, Saquib Usman, Tara Weinberg, Osagie K. Obasogie

April 14, 12:00 pm
Symposium: Horizons of Expectation Today
Robin Blackburn, Nancy Fraser, additional panelists forthcoming

January 16, 1:00 pm
Maylei Blackwell, University of California, Los Angeles
N.D.B. Connolly, Johns Hopkins University
Martin Luther King Jr. Day Symposium:
"Where Do We Go from Here?"

March 8-11
Conference: Revolutionary Longings: The Russian Revolution and the World, 1917-1929
Rackham Amphitheatre / 1014 Tisch Hall
Full schedule: lsa.umich.edu/eihs

SPECIAL EVENTS