

THE UNIVERSITY of Michigan

Korean Culture and History in the Classroom

Presented by the Center for Korean Studies

August 19th, 2010, 8:30AM–4:30 PM

International Institute

University of Michigan Central Campus

School of Social Work Building, Room 1636

1080 S. University Ave., Ann Arbor, MI 48109

SB-CEU_s
AVAILABLE

Join us for the Center for Korean Studies' first annual workshop for educators. Prepare to immerse yourself in Korean history and culture, as this day-long workshop will be filled with special presentations from Korean history scholars, authentic Korean cuisine, as well as cultural activities to enjoy. Learn about Korean history and culture with Dr. Mark Peterson, esteemed Korean Studies scholar, who will present on the role of family, women, and religions in Korean society. Monica Kim, U-M Korean Studies Ph.D. candidate, will give an in-depth interactive presentation about framing the Korean war within multiple contexts. End the day with a tour of the Asia library with Korean Studies librarian Yunah Sung, followed by an overview of the numerous library resources available to K-14 educators.

- Resources
- Activities
- Speakers
- Lessons
- Lunch
- Networking
- Discussion

Contact Minsun Lee by phone or email to register.
Phone: 734-647-9857, email: minsunl@umich.edu

Registration deadline: July 15th, 2010

Registration Fee: $10, Late Registration: $15

Please Note: There is an additional $10 for SB-CEUs

Please remit checks to The University of Michigan and send to:
Center for Korean Studies, University of Michigan
1080 S. University, Suite 4663, Ann Arbor, MI 48109

Center for Korean
Studies

The Center for Korean Studies would like to thank the Nam Family Gift and the Korean American Society of Greater Ann Arbor for their support.