Master’s Program in Statistics Checklist
Effective for students admitted beginning Fall 2011

Student Name _____________________________   UMID __________________      Date ______________

Home Department __________________________________________

Dissertation Title __________________________________________

_____ Stats 500 (3) OR Stats 600 (3)
_____ Stats 503 (3) OR Stats 601 (3)
_____ Biostat 601 (4) OR Stats 610 (3)
_____ Biostat 602 (4) OR Stats 611 (3)

Two Graduate-level Statistics courses (at least 6 credit hours): The Department of Statistics website has a list of approved elective courses. If you choose to do two additional courses in place of the writing component, please list these here. These courses MUST be approved by your advisor.

_________________________  _________________________
_________________________  _________________________

Two Cognate Courses: courses cross-listed cannot count as a Cognate as well as most Biostat courses and some courses in Econ, IOE and other departments.

_________________________
_________________________

Writing component:

_____ A writing component that demonstrates mastery of statistical methods in the design of data collection methods and/or modeling and analysis of data in the student’s area of research.

_________________________  ________________________________
Statistics faculty committee member             Signature

_____ Summary of the Writing Component is attached.

Revised May 2011