Share a copy of your proposal with your department chair and ask that they complete this evaluation form. The form can be signed electronically before printing or by hand after printing.

Note: If faculty leaders are from different departments, each chair must complete a Department Chair Evaluation and both must be submitted with your application materials.

Given our department’s needs, the potential impact of this project on the department, and the general quality of this proposal, I give the project the following rating:

- High-Priority Funding
- Medium-Priority Funding
- Low-Priority Funding
- Needs Further Developments before Funding
