

EMPIRE AND NATION

Uprisings, Reforms and Revolutions in the Ottoman and Russian Empires

Monday/
Wednesday
1-2:30pm

What is an empire? What is a nation? What caused the uprisings and revolutions in empires? What was the response of imperial authorities to the growing sense of nationalism among their imperial subjects? Why did once mighty empires, such as the Ottoman or Russian, collapse? This course will explore these and many other questions through examining the uprisings, reforms and revolutions in the Ottoman and Russian empires from around the 1830s until their collapse.

Vahe Sahakyan
sahakv@umich.edu