

The Japanese Performance Theory Workshop
University of Michigan / Center for Japanese Studies

Application for Summer 2017 Session (June 10–17)

PLEASE PRINT

Name _____

Preferred pronoun _____

Nationality _____

Languages spoken/read (Please indicate proficiency: Low/Med/High/Native)

Address

Phone _____

E-mail _____

Skype login (if applicable) _____

Present occupation(s) or institution(s)

(For students) Current year in program _____

Projected graduation date _____

Are you interested in on-campus accommodations? _____

Grants/subsidies applied for (please include notification timeline)

(For faculty) Do you have research funds available to cover JPTW travel/lodging costs? Please explain (Note: for non-student participants unable to cover these costs, every effort will be made to provide financial assistance.)

Brief description of current research or creative project(s) (Graduate students please include a brief summary of your dissertation topic):

A complete application consists of the following components:

- This application form
- Personal Statement
- CV
- Writing sample
- Letter of recommendation (for undergraduate and graduate students)

Note: this letter should be signed, on institutional letterhead, and be sent directly by the faculty recommender in PDF format to the address below.

Please submit this form and all other application materials via e-mail in a single PDF document to umcjs-jptw@umich.edu by April 1, 2017.

The e-mail subject line should read: "JPTW Application."

Thank you for applying!