

Curriculum Development Grant Application

CMENAS grants awards for the purpose of curriculum development related to the Middle East and/or North Africa (MENA) region. Grants can be used to support a visit for up to five days at the University of Michigan. Educators/scholars have the opportunity to use the MENA collections available at the libraries, museums, and archival collections and the opportunity to consult with faculty during their visit.

All scholars and educators, including K-12 teachers and faculty from two- and four-year colleges and universities, especially those lacking significant MENA resources within their home institutions, are encouraged to apply.

Deadline: Rolling.

\*Grants and award amounts are dependent upon the availability of center funds. All applications will be reviewed in the order that they are submitted. A person may receive an award only once per academic year.*

To apply, please send:

- A completed application form
- A curriculum project proposal, not to exceed 500 words, which includes:
  - a description of the teaching materials to be developed; including expected content, goals, and objectives;
  - a description of the form of the final report (e.g., course syllabus, annotated bibliography, etc.);
  - and the estimate number of students to be impacted by the new teaching materials.
- Resume or CV

If you are sending your completed application by mail or fax, please address your materials to:
