Please address the following questions (you may use a separate sheet of paper for your answers):

1. Why are you interested in becoming a Communication Studies honors student?

2. Please explain the research topic/area/phenomenon you are currently interested in pursuing for your honors thesis. Also explain what courses you have taken in Communication Studies that shaped your interest in this research topic.

3. Please list names of Communication Studies faculty you think would be an appropriate thesis advisor for your area of research. Faculty interest areas may be found on the Communication Studies web site at: www.lsa.umich.edu/comm/faculty, under the Faculty Directory.

4. Please discuss any other information you would like the honors program advisor to consider in evaluating your application.

NOTES:

- Applications for the Communication Studies Honors Program must be submitted between March 1st – April 1st of the student’s Junior year. Application is highly recommended by March 15th.

- Students will be notified by the honors advisor if they are accepted for the program. Permission to register for Comm 491, Senior Honors Seminar, will be entered after the advisor has notified the Undergraduate Program Coordinator of the students accepted to the program.
