Approval Process for Transfer and Study Abroad Credits

Effective fall 2019, a minimum of 12 advanced Communication Studies credits must be taken on the Ann Arbor campus. Students may receive up to a maximum of 10 faculty-approved upper-level credits completed at another institution, either inside or outside the United States.

No transfer credit is allowed for any prerequisite course!

BEFORE taking transfer/study abroad course

1. Will course transfer to University of Michigan?
   a) YES – Course is listed on Transfer Equivalencies (TCE) webpage: http://www.ugadmiss.umich.edu/TCE/Public/CT_TCESearch.aspx.
   b) Course NOT listed on TCE webpage above. Submit for evaluation at: https://www.ugadmiss.umich.edu/TCE/Student/CT_TCEForm.aspx.

2. Will course count toward Communication Studies major? (Pre-approval)
   a) Domestic Transfer Credit – Make appointment with Communication Studies faculty advisor for review of course description and syllabus. Bring material/documentation about the program/courses, including syllabi.
   b) Foreign Transfer (study abroad) credit – Complete the Communication Studies pre-approval Qualtrics form (http://bit.ly/1xKHkoz) for evaluation of study abroad courses to count toward your major. (You will need the course syllabus (previous syllabus for same class acceptable) to upload to the pre-approval site.)

AFTER completing pre-approved transfer/study abroad course
