Reintegrating Bosnia: Ten Years after the Dayton Agreement
October 1–November 30, 2005 • University of Michigan, Ann Arbor
The conference, lectures, and exhibits are free and open to the public.

International Conference / Sat, Oct 29, 9 am–5:30 pm
Reintegrating Bosnia: Ten Years after the Dayton Agreement
1636 SSWB/International Institute, 1080 S. University
Includes a keynote address on human rights in Bosnia and Herzegovina and sessions on Rebuilding Communities, Rebuilding a Common State and Economy, and Bosnia’s Place in Europe. Participants: Srdjan Dizdarević, Helsinki Committee for Human Rights in Bosnia and Herzegovina; Timothy Donais, University of Windsor; Robert J. Donia, University of Michigan; John V.A. Fine, University of Michigan; Charles Ingroa, Purdue University; Michael D. Kennedy, University of Michigan; Gerald Knaus, European Stability Initiative; Bonnie Miller, human rights activist and consultant to NGOs; Lara J. Nettelfield, Research and Documentation Center Sarajevo; Paula Pickering, College of William and Mary; and Mark Wheeler, Office of the High Representative

Lecture / Mon, Oct 10, 12:30–1:30 pm
The War Crimes Tribunals for Yugoslavia: Are Trials after Atrocities Effective?
Robert J. Donia, CREES research associate, and Steven Ratner, professor of law, University of Michigan
Institute for the Humanities Monday Brown Bag Lecture
Osterman Common Room, 0520 Rackham Building, 915 E. Washington

Lecture / Wed, Oct 26, Noon–1 pm
Aftermath: Bosnia’s Long Road to Peace
Sara Terry, documentary photographer, “Aftermath” Project
CREES Brown Bag Lecture
1636 SSWB/International Institute, 1080 S. University

Lecture / Mon, Oct 31, Noon–1 pm
Anti-Terrorism and the State of Human Rights: A Global Perspective
Srdjan Dizdarević, president, Helsinki Committee for Human Rights in Bosnia and Herzegovina
Institute for the Humanities Monday Brown Bag Lecture
Osterman Common Room, 0520 Rackham Building, 915 E. Washington

Book Exhibit / Sat, Oct 1–Mon, Oct 31
The Impact of War and Its Aftermath on Publishing in Bosnia and Herzegovina
Mon–Thurs, 8 am–2 am; Fri, 8 am–6 pm; Sat, 10 am–6 pm; Sun, 1 pm–2 am
Hatcher Graduate Library, North Lobby, 920 N. University
Explores publishing in Bosnia and Herzegovina before hostilities began in the early 1990s, during the siege of Sarajevo, and after the Dayton Agreement

Photo Exhibit / Mon, Oct 17–Wed, Nov 30
Aftermath: Bosnia’s Long Road to Peace
Mon–Fri, 8 am–5 pm; closed weekends and during the Thanksgiving break
International Institute Gallery, 1080 S. University
Features photos by documentary photographer Sara Terry

Mini-course / The Bosnian War and the Dayton Agreement
Instructor: Robert J. Donia, CREES research associate, University of Michigan
REES 405.001/meets with Hist 590.001, 1 credit

Mini-course / Psychosocial Consequences of War
Instructor: Bonnie Miller, human rights activist and consultant to NGOs
REES 405.002/meets with Soc 495.004, 1 credit

Sponsors / Reintegrating Bosnia is sponsored by the University of Michigan’s Center for Russian and East European Studies, European Union Center, Center for International and Comparative Studies, Department of History, Department of Sociology, Institute for the Humanities, International Institute, School of Social Work, and Slavic and East European Division of the Hatcher Graduate Library.

For further information / Visit www.umich.edu/~iinet/crees or contact CREES at 734.764.0351 or crees@umich.edu

Photo by Bill Naiting / Designed by Savitski Design