Bridge Scholars Plus is a community of 150 students living in South Quad. This community taps into scholars’ full range of identities, knowledge, and experiences to develop innovations for social challenges and opportunities that matter most to them.

How are scholars chosen?

Students admitted to the Summer Bridge Scholars Program will complete a short application (1-3 questions) expressing their interest in joining the community.

What are the program opportunities?

In-hall community programming focusing on four categories:

1. Identity exploration and development
2. Academic and career exploration
3. Social engagement
4. Health and wellness

The optiMize Social Innovation Challenge, where scholars will develop a self-directed project aimed at working toward a more just and sustainable world. Benefits include:

- Access to mentors and peers who will work with scholars to optimize their project
- A chance to pitch for up to $10,000 to continue growing their project

Apply by May 5 to become part of this special community
