

EISENBERG INSTITUTE FOR HISTORICAL STUDIES

WINTER 2018 PROGRAMS 1014 TISCH HALL lsa.umich.edu/eihs

THURSDAY SERIES

February 1, 4 pm | Lecture
Gregory Pflugfelder, Columbia University
Private Parts and Public Concerns:
Erecting the Modern Japanese Penis

February 15, 4 pm | Lecture
Edda L. Fields-Black, Carnegie Mellon University
"Combee": Harriet Tubman, the Combahee River Raid, and Transformation in Gullah Geechee Identity

March 8, 4 pm | Lecture
Dena Goodman, University of Michigan
Biography and History: Building a Successful
Life in the Wake of the French Revolution

March 22, 4 pm | Lecture
Ruth Mazo Karras, University of Minnesota
The Myth of Masculine Impunity:
Male Adultery and Repentance in the Middle Ages

April 5, 4 pm | Lecture
Alan Mikhail, Yale University
Columbus the Muslim

FRIDAY SERIES

February 2, 12 pm | Graduate Student Workshop
Ximena Gómez, Robert Morrissey,
Gregory Pflugfelder, Alessio Ponzio,
Hitomi Tonomura (chair)

February 16, 12 pm | Graduate Student Workshop
Juan Rodriguez Barrera, Morgan Carlton,
Sargeant Donovan-Smith, Richard Reinhardt,
Rudolph Ware (chair)

March 9, 12 pm | Lecture
Jason Steinhauer, Villanova University
The Future of (Public) History

March 23, 12 pm | Graduate Student Workshop
Hayley Bowman, Joseph Gamble,
William Holden, Nicholas Holterman,
Katherine French (chair)

April 6, 12 pm | Graduate Student Workshop
Golriz Farshi, Amanda Respass,
Kate Waggoner-Karchner,
Kathryn Babayan (chair)

SPECIAL EVENT

January 15, 1 pm | Martin Luther King Jr. Symposium
Ruth Feldstein, Rutgers University-Newark
Monica Muñoz Martinez, Brown University
Brenda Tindal, Levine Museum of the New South
1968 + 50: Unfinished Legacies of Dr. King's Last Year