

SUMMER EAP

July 5–August 12, 2022

Graduate English For Academic Purposes

THE PROGRAM (title linked)

Summer EAP is a rigorous and engaging six-week in-person program that prepares new international graduate students admitted for academic, cultural, and professional success at University of Michigan. Get ready for your academic program and prepare to participate in life on campus in the fall!

COURSE COMPONENTS

Summer EAP incorporates elements from the ELI’s renowned research-based academic English curriculum in order to provide a solid foundation for students to begin their graduate studies in the fall.

ACADEMIC READING AND WRITING

Prepare to manage the heavy reading load of a graduate student and produce high-quality graduate-level academic papers.

SPEAKING AND PRESENTING

Become more comfortable speaking English on and off campus as you build confidence communicating in seminar discussions and public speaking situations.

LISTENING AND PRONUNCIATION

Become a more active and skilled listener, improve the comprehensibility of your English pronunciation at the same time!

U.S. CULTURE AND SOCIETY/CAPSTONE PROJECT

Learn about diverse populations and cultures that make up society in Michigan and the U.S. via a capstone project that takes you out of the classroom into the local community.

SUMMER IN ANN ARBOR

SOCIAL AND CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Summer EAP includes extensive opportunities to use English outside the classroom. Each Friday will feature a cultural outing, a field trip, or a guest speaker to help you better understand U.S. culture and prepare for life in Ann Arbor. Frequent social events will allow you to get to know your Summer EAP classmates in casual, informal situations. Ann Arbor's many restaurants, bars, and major attractions are all within walking distance or a short bus ride of the U-M campus. Summer Michigan weather is ideal for hiking or cycling in local parks or kayaking on the Huron River.
