ELI Courses for International Scholars, Researchers, Faculty, Staff, and Post-Docs
Registration + Payment Form

Overview

The ELI offers courses designed to provide International Scholars, Researchers, Staff and Post-Docs the English language support they need to maximize their professional contributions during their stay at the University of Michigan. These courses focus on written communication and speaking in both formal and informal academic settings. Extensive individualized feedback enables participants to improve their accuracy, fluency, and delivery style and to increase their confidence using English in both professional and social settings.

Course offering for Winter 2019:

VS 502: Academic Communications Seminar. Thursdays, 12:00 – 2:00 pm, January 24 – April 4 (10 sessions)

Eligibility:

This course is open to current International Scholars, Researchers, Faculty, Staff and Post-Docs at the University of Michigan.

Payment

The course fee is $900. Space is limited, and a seat in the course is not guaranteed until payment is received. Full payment must be received by the second class meeting (1/31/19). No refunds will be given after this date.

Some departments/sponsors cover all or part of this fee. Payment may be made online via credit card or in person with a personal check or departmental shortcode.

Please complete the information below and submit with payment to the ELI main office at 900 Weiser Hall, 500 Church Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1042. Make your check payable to “University of Michigan.”
