

Betsy Carter Scholarship Nomination Form

This award will be given to an undergraduate student who has an interest in Journalism and/or writes for the Michigan Daily. Along with honoring a commitment to writing, the purpose is to provide need-based and/or merit scholarship support for an English major. The amount of the award is $500.00.

Ms. Betsy Carter is a graduate of the English department and former member of the English Advisory Board. Betsy was an editor at Esquire, Harper's Bazaar, and other magazines, and the founding editor of New York Woman and My Generation. Ms. Carter has also written several novels: The Orange Blossom Special, Swim to Me, and The Puzzle King.

Please attach a brief statement describing why you/this student should be considered for this scholarship.

Return this form and your statement to Jennifer Catey in the Undergraduate English Office, 3187D Angell Hall, by Friday, April 5, 2019.
