Religion Minor Checklist
(Effective January 1, 2016)

Student Name ________________________________ Date __________________________

The academic minor program in Religion should be planned in consultation with a Faculty Advisor from the History Department, the administrative home of this multidisciplinary minor. For more information see the LSA minors website.

List the FIVE courses that will count toward your Religion Minor.

- History 105: Introduction to Religion is required (History advisors can approve an alternative survey).
- At least two of the four additional courses must be at the 300-level or above.
- The four additional courses must come from the approved list of courses that count for the Religion Minor—see the Religion Minor website for the full list.
- No more than two of the four additional courses can be taken from the same department.
- Four of the five courses must be taken in-residence at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, or must count as in-residence credit (i.e., through UM-sponsored CGIS programs abroad).
- The minor coursework must cover at least two of the following religious traditions—Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism—or another tradition approved by a History Advisor.
- All courses must be taken for a grade (i.e., not pass/fail).
