The Hopwood Awards contests were first held in 1931. Since 1932, the Hopwood Awards Ceremony has included the Hopwood Lecture, an opportunity for a prominent writer to speak on a subject of importance to young writers. This year we are delighted that the Hopwood Lecturer is Jia Tolentino, a staff writer at The New Yorker and the author of the essay collection, Trick Mirror. Jia won two Hopwood Awards while earning her MFA in creative writing at the University of Michigan, and we are delighted to welcome her back to Ann Arbor. We hope you can join us at 5:30 p.m. on April 7th for a reading and Q&A with Jia in the Rackham 4th floor Amphitheatre.

Although we are excited to be able to hold an in-person ceremony for the first time since 2019, we are also live streaming the ceremony and Jia’s reading for those who wish to attend virtually. Please use this link for both events: https://tinyurl.com/ZellWriters (no registration required).

We are grateful to the students, faculty, staff, donors, and judges whose participation and support made this year’s awards possible. We hope that you will join us in thanking all of those who foster a tradition of writing excellence at the University of Michigan.

These fellowships were made possible by contributions of Hopwood winners and other students of Professor Cowden, who was the Director of the Hopwood Awards Program from 1935 until 1952. These awards are made on the basis of financial need and writing talent.

Stanley S. Schwartz Prize

An award donated by Ann Arbor novelist Steven Gillis in memory of his father. Mr. Gillis writes of his father, “Stanley Schwartz came to the University of Michigan in 1947 to study English and creative writing. A track star for the University, Stan ran the quarter mile on the University’s then record-setting middle distance relay team at the Milrose Games. Graduating with honors, he attended the University of Michigan Law School and went on to become one of the country’s most successful and influential attorneys. As the founding partner in Sommers, Schwartz, Silver, and Schwartz, Stan blazed the trail for birth trauma litigation, authoring several books while devoting himself to protecting the interests of aggrieved parents.”
