Every year the Frankel Center for Judaic Studies awards the Marshall Weinberg prize to an outstanding graduate student in Judaic Studies. To be eligible for the prize, the student must have passed his or her prelims and be engaged in writing his or her dissertation.

If you would like to nominate one of your graduate students, please send the following materials to the Judaic Studies Student Service Coordinator no later than January 25th.

☐ Letter of support, setting forth the student's merits and indicating his or her progress toward the degree.

☐ The student’s dissertation prospectus

☐ Copies of any articles the student has published

☐ The student’s curriculum vitae
