

2024-2025 LSWA Club Descriptions

- I. Drawing Club
 - A. Leaders: Claire Kase (SA), Courtney Ayotte (SA), Zia Jerdon (SA)
 - B. Description: Whether you're an expert artist or just starting out, art club is a great place to strengthen your creativity. Join us to experiment with all different drawing styles and mediums. :3

- II. Printmaking Club
 - A. Leaders: Lily Shields (SA), Alicia Xie (SA), Kenny Su (SA)
 - B. Description: Join us to make your own stamps! Using linoleum blocks and carving tools, members will get to carve and print their own unique stamps onto various materials, such as clothing, tote bags, and so much more. We plan on experimenting with all mediums of printmaking, including traditional linoleum stamps and cyanotypes, and we will also be exploring sustainable fashion by visiting local thrift stores. In previous years, members have personalized clothes, created room decor, greeting cards, and much more. This club is perfect for anyone who is interested in trying a unique and distinct craft, even if you have no prior experience!

- III. Filmmaking Club
 - A. Leaders: Hannah Mills (SA), Johnny Thompson (SA), Hannah Kryzhan (SA)
 - B. Description: Welcome to Filmmaking Club, where we'll explore the intricacies of creating films and TV! Take a deep dive into what you see and hear on screen, and learn about the magic behind the camera. Draft storyboards, bring them to life, edit your own masterpiece, and so much more!

- IV. Music Club
 - A. Leaders: Kris Shah (RA), Cecilia Sobocinski (CM)
 - B. Description: Do you play an instrument? Do you enjoy jamming out? Do you just like to listen to cool music? Music club can be a great fit for you! You don't have to be a musician, you just have to enjoy music! We accept music lovers of all levels and genres! Now inviting all singers, musicians, producers and listeners to join Music Club. Have a lot of fun with music and learn a little on the way!

- V. Choir Club
 - A. Leaders: Anna Erdos (SA), Jordan Pecar (SA)
 - B. Description: Choir Club offers a break during the week to sing with other first-year students. We will sing a variety of music chosen by club members, including pop, musical theater, and rock. Club members will enhance their abilities to sing, sight read, and learn basic music theory! We also hope to support other music groups around campus by attending performances. Our goal is to eventually perform at a LSWA event. No previous experience is required! We would love to jam with you!

VI. Photography & Visual Arts Club

- A. Leaders: DaMone' Payne (CM), Danielle Kiminyo (RA)
- B. Description: Photography and Visual Arts Club is a club where students will not only learn and develop their skills in photography and visual arts, but also will be able to connect with themselves and their culture as well as exchange and learn about the culture of their peers. We will do this through a series of photo sessions in the Arb where students will get photographs that will be used in an overarching final project that will be developed in the following recurring sessions through research and the use of mixed visual mediums of art.

VII. Board Game Creation Club

- A. Leaders: Adrian Valbuena (SA), Miranda Tess (SA), Lauren Brace (SA)
- B. Description: Do you love board games? Have you ever wanted to learn more about what goes into making your own? In Board Game Creation Club, we're going to learn all about gameplay and artwork design in a chill and fun environment to learn and play! We'll draw inspiration from a variety of tabletop and rpg games such as Ticket to Ride or DnD! We also have fun crafts planned like painting your own playing cards and making your own board game pieces. By the end of the club, you will have developed the skills and knowledge to start designing your own game!

VIII. Storybuilding Club

- A. Leaders: Sarah/Seraph Griffith (RA), Catherine Kautz (CM), Juliette Todd (SA)
- B. Description: Have you always wanted to create your own story? Do you enjoy making worlds and characters from scratch? Are you someone who loves growing your skills as a creator? This is the club for you! This is the perfect place to make a story, design a game, or write a campaign of your own. We can't wait to see you at Storybuilding Club, where writers, artists, gamers, and D&D nerds can come together to create the worlds of our dreams.*: ° ☆.

IX. Poetry Club

- A. Leaders: Aman Khandaker (CM), Ashley Wang (SA)
- B. Description: Poetry Club is a place to write, discuss, and workshop poetry with your fellow LSWA students, as well as meet and connect with like-minded writers! Possible activities range from being a space to reflect with peers to sharing the poetry you've worked hard on all semester to an audience (if you so choose). Any level of poetry experience or expertise is welcome, whether you've been writing since you were eight or eighteen! We'd love to see you there!

X. Arts and Literary Journal Club

- A. Leaders: Aileen Dosev (SA), Charlie Shang (SA)
- B. Professional Advisor: Mitali Sharma
- C. Description: Arts and Literary Journal Club is the team behind LSWA's annual literary journal. Each year, our editors (club members) work together to review, discuss, and feature the best creative work of our community! Running our literary arts press is a great opportunity to gain editorial experience, make new friends, and see awesome creative work. If you're interested in curation, publishing, illustration, web and print layout design, social media, and/or related topics, check us out!

XI. Creative Writing Club

- A. Leaders: Erin Knape (RA), Martha Schaller (RA)
- B. Description: This year is going to focus on your long-term projects! Over the first couple weeks of the club, we will be helping you brainstorm and plan a long-term creative project that you will work on over the course of this whole academic year. This could be a novella, play/TV script, poetry collection, or anything else you can think of! We don't want you to feel limited by size or scope because we are here to help make your wildest plans become reality! We look forward to helping you all on your individual projects, as well as fostering a positive and conducive writing environment.

XII. Screenwriting Club

- A. Leaders: Lauren Horne (RA), Brett Sherwood (RA)
- B. Description: Turn your story ideas into cinematic gold at the Screenwriting Club! Join fellow aspiring screenwriters for workshops, brainstorming sessions, and contest submission tips. Whether you're a seasoned writer or just starting, this is your chance to refine your craft, get feedback, and connect with a community of passionate storytellers.
