

Eugenia Quintanilla

✉ eugeniaq@umich.edu

☎ +1 954-850-0037

🐦 eu_quintanilla

EDUCATION

University of Michigan

Ann Arbor, MI

PhD in Political Science (American Political Behavior)

2018 – 2024

Committee: Ted Brader (co-chair), Vince Hutchings (co-chair),
Arthur Lupia, Mara Ostfeld

New College of Florida

Sarasota, FL

BA in Psychology and Political Science, with Honors

2014 – 2018

PUBLICATIONS

The Generation Gap in Latino/a/x Politics with Angela X. Ocampo

Chapter in Growing up Latinx in the Land of Liberty: Drawing on Community and Culture to Face Contextual Challenges ed. Rosario Ceballo & Deborah Rivas-Drake

The (Muted) Consequences of Invoking Racism in Policy Arguments
(Revise and Resubmit) with Kirill Zhirkov

IN PROGRESS

Book Manuscript

- Prosocial Politics: How Americans' Desire to Help Shapes Political Action

Articles

- Power and Need in the American Political Imagination

- Popular Problems: Affective Polarization, Material Convergence

with Amir Fleischmann

- Measuring Prosocial Political Preferences

- Place Attachment and Anti-Immigrant Sentiment

RESEARCH

Prosocial Design Network

2024 – Present

EXPERIENCE

Intervention Library Fellow

Prosocial Politics Research Group

2021 – Present

Lead project investigator and mentor, in collaboration with UROP and Research Scholars at the University of Michigan

Datagotchi U.S.

July 2023 - Present

Survey research design and U.S. public opinion consulting.

with Simon Coulombe, Yannick Dufresne, Catherine Oullet

Party At the Mailbox - Black Girls Vote

2020

Qualitative interviews in the Detroit Area

with Melissa Michelson (Menlo College)

Research Assistant - Center for Political Studies

Immigration Public Opinion in the U.S. 2020-2022
with Ted Brader

Latino/a Partisanship and Political Identification 2019
with Mara Ostfeld

PRESENTATIONS

Midwest Political Science Association

- Popular Probes: Affective Polarization, Material Convergence April 2024
- Power and Need in the American Imagination April 2024
- Prosocial Issue Framing and Abortion Rights Activism April 2023
- Prosocial Politics: A Theory of Political Engagement April 2022

International Society of Political Psychology

- Power and Need in the American Imagination July 2024
- Prosociality and Political Engagement among U.S. Youth July 2022
- Exploring Prosocial Political Behavior July 2021
- How Charges of Racism Affect Citizen Policy Evaluations July 2020
(with Kirill Zhirkov)

FELLOWSHIPS

Gerald R. Ford Dissertation Fellowship ($36,000) 2023
Garth Taylor Dissertation Fellowship ($10,000) 2023
Gupta Values Scholarship ($7,500) 2023
Barger Leadership Institute, Social Transformation Fellowship ($15,000)
with Akhila Mullapudi and Julia Kassab 2023
Rackham Merit Fellowship ($67,000) 2018

GRANTS

Rackham Conference Travel Grant ($1,200) 2019, 2022
NCID Antiracism Summer Research Grant ($5,000) 2021
New College Alumnae/i Research Grant ($500) 2018
Joe Haaf Memorial Research Grant ($600) 2018
Dubois Felsmann Research Grant ($600) 2018

TEACHING

Graduate Student Instructor - University of Michigan

Introduction to American Politics (with Charles Shipan) 2020-2021
Stability of U.S. Democracy (with Robert Mickey) Winter 2020
Introduction to Comparative Politics (with Mary Gallagher) Fall 2019

SERVICE

University of Michigan

Graduate Association of Political Scientists Co-President 2022-2023
Interdisciplinary Workshop in American Politics Coordinator 2019-2020

SKILLS

Statistical Analysis and Data Visualization: R, Stata, SPSS, \LaTeX
Languages: English and Spanish (fluent)

REFERENCES

Upon Request