THE FUTURE IS NOW
MAPPING SOCIAL CHANGE IN CONTEMPORARY SOUTH KOREA

NOV 17-18, 2017 | UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN | WEISER HALL, 10TH FLOOR

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

KANG ILWON, Korean Constitutional Court Justice

KEYNOTE PANEL | THE TWO KOREAS AND NORTHEAST ASIA: THE FUTURE IS NOW

MEREDITH WOO, President, Sweet Briar College
CUI ZHIYUAN, Professor, School of Public Policy and Management, Tsinghua University
YOO SEONG-MIN, Member, National Assembly of the Republic of Korea

In recognition of the Nam Center’s 10th anniversary, the 7th Perspectives conference will showcase a series of innovative, border-crossing and pragmatic conversations about the past, present, and future of South Korean society across the domains of education, politics, economy, culture, regional relationships, and law. This conference is FREE and open to the public.

KOREAN-NESS AND BEING: IN SEARCH OF HALLYU’S TRANSNATIONAL IDENTITY

KYUNG HYUN KIM, Professor, Film, UC Irvine
JOO CHULHWAN, CEO, Seoul Foundation for Arts and Culture
PETER KANG, President of Production, Lionsgate
FLOWSION SHEKAR, CEO & Founder, Koreaboo & Founder, KCON

KOREAN ECONOMY AT A CROSSROADS: GEOPOLITICAL RISKS AND POLICY SHIFT

E. HAN KIM, Professor, Finance, University of Michigan
JUNG KU-HYUN, Former President of Samsung Economic Research Institute
LEE SUK-CHAE, Former Minister of Information and Telecommunication, Korea

EDUCATION IN KOREA

HYUNJOON PARK, Associate Professor, Sociology, University of Pennsylvania
SETH ANDREW, Founder, Democracy Prep Public Schools & Former Senior Advisor on STEM Education, Education Technology, and Civic Engagement in the Office of the President, USA
SUNG YOUL-KWAN, Dean, Graduate School of Education, Kyung Hee University

SPACES OF CITIZENSHIP

JENNIFER CHUN, Associate Professor, Sociology, University of Toronto
JU HUI JUDY HAN, Assistant Professor, Gender Studies, University of California, Los Angeles
KIM MYOUNGJOON, Director, MediAct

COSPONSORED BY THE U-M LAW SCHOOL