Department of Political Science

Political Internship Program
(Fall 2016 - PS399)

University of Michigan Political Science Department invites Junior and Senior Political Science Students to apply for Placement with Michigan state legislators, Michigan Senators and Members of Congress, the Michigan Executive, federal and local courts, interest groups, legal professionals, private sector Governmental Affairs Offices, and the media.

3-credit Political Science course
Involves a minimum commitment of 12 hours per week in placement office
Students must line up their own internships, but are provided with one-on-one guidance in finding placement opportunities
Course work entails weekly online class discussion entries, several personal interviews/papers, and four evening seminar sessions with the Program Director.

What do I get out of the Political Internship Program?
1. Preview of careers in the political, legal, and non-profit world
2. Visible, unique work experience for your resume
3. Letters of recommendation for law/graduate school applications or future job opportunities
4. Networking and leadership training experience

Acceptance into Internship Program is based on application and personal interview.
Interviews scheduled starting immediately and running through the beginning of winter term.
