WELCOME TO THE SPRING 2018 TELLING IT TEENS ANTHOLOGY! WE HAVE HAD A WONDERFUL YEAR WITH THE TEENAGERS THAT COME TO PARKRIDGE COMMUNITY CENTER EVERY MONDAY EVENING TO PARTICIPATE IN TELLING IT.

This selection of the teenagers’ writing reflects the themes of identity, safety, belonging, self-regulation and powering forward with a positive vision for the future. We were lucky to have some incredible visitors over the past year. In March, the theatre group, Maine Inside Out, led a session focused on the importance of positive choices. This group of formally incarcerated men and women support each other and those that are currently incarcerated. During the month of April, a local video company filmed the teenagers’ stories.

The mission of Telling It is to support the healing and learning needs of school-age youth using best practices from social work and education filtered through the arts so they can lead safe, healthy and fulfilling lives. The program is youth driven, trauma-informed and designed to meet the needs of school-age youth so they can reach their full potential as engaged community members.

I hope you enjoy this collection of writing. It was truly a pleasure to get to know the teenagers and to hear their stories.

With all good wishes,

A PLACE I’M HAPPY
I was born in Detroit,
Forgot what hospital I was in at the time
But my favorite sport is basketball.
Didn’t like it at first
I loved dodge ball
But as I got older
I saw how amazing basketball really is.
