ARGENTINA

Advanced Spanish Language in Buenos Aires
Coursework: 300 & 400-level, Internship: 300-Level (Semester)
Live and study in Buenos Aires! Specially designed for students with advanced Spanish language proficiency, this program allows you to build your language skills and cultural literacy as you immerse yourself in the culture of Argentina. There are six optional academic concentrations available through IFSA-Butler, allowing students to specialize in key areas such as: Human Rights: Genocide, Literature in Argentina, Cinema in Argentina, Directed Research, Human Rights: Diversity, Minority, and Gender Studies and Intensive Spanish.

SPAIN

Advanced Language & Culture in Granada
Coursework: 300 & 400-level, Internship: 300-Level (Semester)
This unique Michigan program combines classes with UM faculty and local Spanish professors both at a local study center and at the prestigious Universidad de Granada. The local program center is located in the heart of Granada on Plaza Santa Ana. A carefully selected host family will be an integral part of your experience living and studying in Granada. You will also participate in a unique 5-day, 4 night excursion to Morocco!

Advanced Language and Culture in Madrid
Coursework: 300 & 400-level, Internship: 300-Level (Semester)
This program is well suited for students who want to be in a large urban environment and who will be comfortable taking public transportation on a regular basis. For-credit internships and other volunteer opportunities are available. All instruction is in Spanish, and you will take a combination of courses at the IES program center and the Universidad de Complutense de Madrid.

Intensive Language and Culture in Santiago de Compostela
Coursework: Two 400-level courses (Spring)
This is a unique opportunity for students with advanced Spanish skills to spend spring term abroad in the historical town of Santiago de Compostela. Earn six 400-level Spanish credits while experiencing Spanish daily life. Course topics are connected to the rich history and culture of the Galicia region. You will also study the historical pilgrimage known as El Camino de Santiago and will hike a portion of it as a group.

Language and Culture in Salamanca
Coursework: Two 300-level courses (Summer)
This is a great way to continue Spanish language acquisition after completing 277 and to start earning credits at the 300 level. Enroll in a combination of classes with UM faculty and local Spanish professors. Courses provide insight into Spanish history, culture, and literature. Earn 6 in-residence credits during UM summer term and be immersed in local culture by living with a host family and participating in program-related activities and excursions.

For more information on these programs, please visit mcompass.umich.edu.

There is over $1.7 million in LSA Scholarships for CGIS programs. Over 95% of eligible LSA Applicants receive an LSA Study Abroad Scholarship through the LSA Scholarship Office. For more information, visit lsa.umich.edu/scholarships.

lsa.umich.edu/cgis