WINTER 2019

Catalan 291/Spanish 291: Introduction to Catalan Language and Culture
Susanna Coll
TTh 11:30 am-1 pm #32946 / #32975

This course is an introduction to Catalan language, culture, and history. The principal aim is to acquire a more profound understanding of the history, politics, society and culture of the Catalan world through listening, writing, reading and speaking activities in Catalan. Language will be used through communicative activities; however, no previous knowledge of Catalan language is required. The class will discuss issues of relevance to Catalan culture and history. Materials will include newspaper articles, cultural readings, movies, videos, short lectures, listening activities, and computer materials.
