French and Francophone Studies Major

Prerequisite for the Major
- French 235

Major Requirements
- A minimum of 30 credits through courses numbered 240 and above.
- A minimum of 18 credits must be numbered 300 or above, or equivalent.
- Majors must take one of the following courses in RLL at the Ann Arbor campus: French 340-379, 391-392, 402, 450-499.
- A maximum of two courses may be chosen from French courses taught in English without language prerequisites (French 240, 241, 244, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 402 and 453). A list of additional French courses taught in English approved for credit toward the French major can be found on the RLL website.
- A maximum of nine credits from French 380, 381, and 414 as well as any of their equivalents accepted as transfer and/or study abroad credit can count toward the major.

Residence Requirement
- A maximum of 15 out-of-residence credits are permitted. All other credits must be in-residence: taken on UM campus or with a study abroad program affiliated with UM (CGIS).

Graduate Programs
Be aware that most graduate programs expect substantial preparation in literature. For this reason, if you are interested in earning a graduate degree in French, you should give particular consideration to French 270, 362-369, 378, and 400-level courses in literature and culture.

Students who wish to pursue an academic minor are strongly encouraged to make a general advising appointment to discuss degree requirements/options and to develop a plan for degree completion. Appointments may be scheduled on the RLL website or by calling (734) 764-5344.

Information about French programs in the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures as well as additional copies of the worksheet are available on the website: www.lsa.umich.edu/rll/.
