Paper Competition
Submission Guidelines

LSA SOCIOLOGY
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Deadlines:
January 25 (Fall papers)
May 10 (Winter papers)

Eita Krom Prize
2018-2019 Prize: $500

Submission requirements: An essay 10 to 25 pages in length on a sociological topic written by an LSA junior or senior. The essay must have a unique title; and not bear the name of a class assignment. A submission with a title like Paper 1, for example, will not be considered.

Submission restrictions: Entries cannot be group-authored papers nor excerpts from Honors theses. Please do not submit response papers or project proposals.

Submission process and guidelines: Submit your entry via email in PDF format to socadvisor@umich.edu. Make the name of the document as close to the title of your paper as possible. The body of your email must include:

- the name of the award for which you are submitting your paper
- your name and UM-ID
- the semester in which the paper was written
- the class for which the paper was written
- the name and email address of the instructor (and GSI, if applicable).

DO NOT include your name or any other identifying information on the document you submit. (Be sure to delete headers or footers that include your UM-ID or name.) Remove any instances of the title of the class, class instructors, and semester dates.

Mark Chesler Student Research Award
2018-2019 Prize: $250

Submission requirements: An essay 10 to 35 pages in length that contributes to the sociological understanding of diversity, social justice, participatory action research, intergroup relations, or service learning. The essay must have a unique title; and not bear the name of a class assignment. A submission with a title like Paper 1, for example, will not be considered.

Submission restrictions: Entries cannot be group-authored. Please do not submit response papers or project proposals.

Submission process and guidelines: Submit your entry via email in PDF format to socadvisor@umich.edu. Make the name of the document as close to the title of your paper as possible. The body of your email must include:

- the name of the award for which you are submitting your paper
- your name and UM-ID
- the semester in which the paper was written
- the class for which the paper was written
- the name and email address of the instructor (and GSI, if applicable).

DO NOT include your name or any other identifying information on the document you submit. (Be sure to delete headers or footers that include your UM-ID or name.) Remove any instances of the title of the class, class instructors, and semester dates.

https://lsa.umich.edu/soc/undergraduates/writing-awards.html