

Law, Justice, and Social Change

The Law, Justice, and Social Change minor/subplan offers an intellectual home for students interested in the relationship between legal institutions, inequality, and the capacity of social groups to produce fundamental social change.

Sociology classes in the Law, Justice, and Social Change minor/subplan cover topics such as:

- criminal justice
- social change
- law & inequality
- terrorism & violence
- human rights
- social movements
- immigration & migration
- deviance
- bioethics
- social work

For students interested in the following career paths:

- law
- public policy
- criminal justice
- grassroots social change
- social work

Want to know more?

Make an advising appointment through the online appointment system or contact socadvisor@umich.edu.

visit: lsa.umich.edu/soc | contact: socadvisor@umich.edu
3115 LSA Building | 500 S. State St. | Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1382