MIGRATIONS AND MULTICULTURALISM

Speakers and events in this series will focus on migration flows and explore the different meanings and challenges of cultural diversity—from the multiculturalism of the Austro-Hungarian empire, to guest workers in socialist Yugoslavia, to anti-immigrant populist movements throughout contemporary Europe.

EUROPE. OLD AND NEW

2018 marks the centennial of the end of the First World War, the collapse of empires, and the redrawing of Europe's map. This series explores those themes, but also critically examines where we are now, a century later. Speakers will discuss the challenges of multiculturalism, minority and civic rights at the time of democratic crisis and rising populism throughout Europe.
