

Camilla Delsid, Ph.D.

EDUCATION

- Capella University, Minneapolis, MN
Ph.D. - Human Services
Dissertation: Latino Mixed Status Families and Poverty: A Phenomenological Study.
<http://search.proquest.com/docview/1624877388>
- University of Phoenix, Phoenix, AZ
M.A. – Education. Concentration: Online Education
- California State University Chico, Chico, CA
B.A. - Sociology

Certificates/Training:

- Child Trauma Academy (Bruce Perry) Neuro-Sequential Model (NMT)
- U.S. Department of Justice – Executive Office for Immigration Review
Board of Immigration Appeals Representative (Department of Homeland Security 2015)

Instructor, University of California, Davis (UC Davis) Extension, Center for Human Services, Davis, CA.
03/2018 – present

Teach “Core for Social Workers”, California State standardized curricula for social workers. Consult assigned topics in the practice areas of child welfare, social welfare, cultural competence and diversity, immigration and others as appointed.

Senior Social Worker, Extended Foster Care (AB12), Shasta County Health and Human Services Agency, Child Protective Services, Redding, CA
03/2017-present

Carry a caseload of the most difficult types of social service cases involving individualized treatment and specialized advanced application of casework methods and skills; diagnose client problems and follow through with difficult treatment plans with the highest degree of independence; interview clients in office or home to assess needs for service; explain the optional and mandatory nature of social services programs; interpret State, County and departmental rules, regulations and policies to individuals and groups; respond to requests for information and make referrals to appropriate workers or departments; gather, maintain and disseminate current information on community resources; prepare court reports, case records and correspondence; as an additional duty, function in a lead capacity and assist with casework consultation and training for other social workers; assist in developing and implementing unit policies and procedures; act in the absence of the supervisor or as designated in assigning cases and reviewing and approving case decisions; attend meetings and does related work as needed.

Adjunct Professor, Human Services, Shasta Community College, Redding, CA
2006-present

Using multiple teaching methods, including Blended Learning, Online (Canvas, Moodle, Blackboard), Hybrid, Instructional Television, Face-to-Face, instruct “Introduction to Human Services/Social Work”, “Standards and Practices in Human Services”, “Family, Marriage and Relationships”, “Case Management”, “Adulthood and Aging”, Sociology (Social Welfare). Develop and teach curricula. Manage face-to-face, hybrid and online classrooms. Taught German I and II from 2006 – 2009.

County Director/Sr. Program Manager, Northern Valley Catholic Social Service (501(c) 3). Red Bluff, CA 2003 - 2015

Developed and managed programs from 13+ funding sources, identified trends based on local needs and developed funds/contracts with partners to meet identified needs. Wrote and administered all grants. Supervised and evaluated 12+ staff. Reported orally and in writing to Executive Director and Board of Directors. Prepared and delivered program presentations to broad audiences. Wrote Business Plan and Policies and Procedures for the Immigration and Citizenship Program. Collaborated with United States Customs and Immigration Service for outreach and education. Prepared and facilitated presentations on immigration and other locally pertinent topics. Established and supervised the Corning Family Resource Center, Immigration and Immigrant Integration Program, Immigration Legal Services, Family Academy, Elder Services, and Food 4 Thought Nutrition Program. Advocated on behalf of immigrant issues and worked with foundations on grant administration for programs. Wrote Immigration Program policies and procedures.

Freelance Translator German/English/German

Ongoing

Translate German Documents into English/German, including classic literature from the 17th Century onward, historic family journals, letters, legal documents and poetry.

PUBLICATIONS/PRESENTATIONS

- Latino Mixed Status Families and Poverty: A Phenomenological Study. 2014
- Food as the Entry Point for Service
Presenter at Catholic Charities USA Annual Conference, San Francisco, CA 2013
- Learning Today – Earning Tomorrow. A Case for Career Technical Education (CTE) and Linked Learning Practice (LLP) White Paper. Shasta College Center for Economic Workforce Development. 2012
- Since when are “Hash tag” and “m-learning” Words in the English Language?”
The Use of Handheld Devices in Educational Delivery.
White Paper. Shasta College Center for Economic Workforce Development. 2011
- Assessing Small Rural Business Practices for Training and Education.
White Paper. Shasta College Center for Economic Workforce Dev. 2011